Invitation from the Armagh Diocesan Youth Ministry Office -

World Youth Day Panama 2019 Youth Celebration Mass I St Patrick's Cathedral Armagh – Sunday 27 January 2019

World Youth Day is one of the most extraordinary experiences that a young person can have. This coming January Pope Francis and millions of young people world-wide will be celebrating World Youth Day in Panama, Central America. On Sunday 27 January Archbishop Eamon will be celebrating Mass at 5.30 pm in St Patrick's Cathedral Armagh. This will be in conjunction with Pope Francis' concluding celebration in Panama, whilst announcing the destination for the next World Youth Day. Our Youth Mass in Armagh aims to recreate a sense of the atmosphere of World Youth Day through vibrant youth choir and prayer. We invite all to attend, young and old. We especially like to involve all awards participants, current and past, all young people who have attended WYD or any pilgrimage in the past and those who wish to have a faith encounter in joining in this universal church event.
